

The Flash #105 (DC, 1959) #1 issue. The Scarlet Speedster, who launched the Silver Age of Comics with his tryout appearances in Showcase, received his own title with this key issue, the numbering of which picked up where the Golden Age Flash Comics left off. Carmine Infantino provided the cover and interior art, part of his lengthy and noteworthy run as the series' initial artist. The Mirror Master makes his first appearance, and the Flash's origin is retold.

#2 most valuable DC comic of 1959. #4 most valuable silver age DC comic

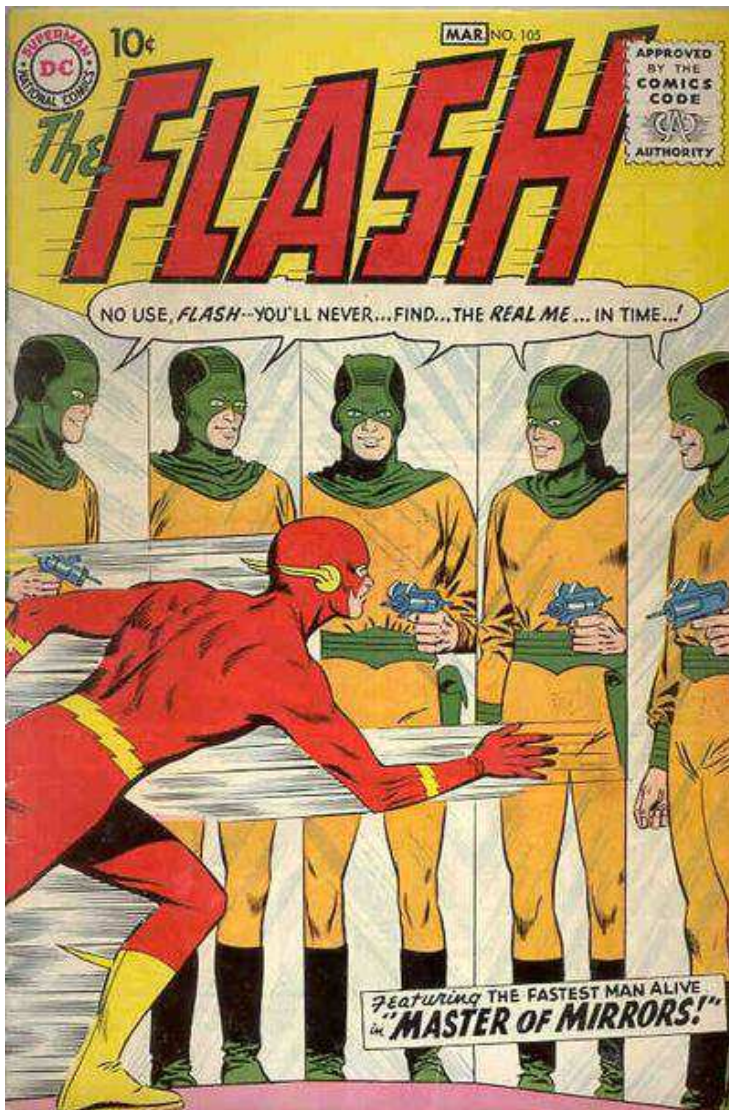

#4 most valuable DC 1950's key 1st appearance comic. Print run estimate: 298,000 copies.

Mirror Master is a supervillain in the DC Universe. He is a recurring foe of the Flash with considerable technical expertise and skills involving the use of mirrors. Four individuals have donned the guise of Mirror Master (with a couple being members of the Rogues at different times). In 2009, Mirror Master was ranked as IGN's 79th Greatest Comic Book Villain of All Time. Sam Scudder was a simple convict, but had the goal to learn how to get inside the reflection of a mirror. Stumbling into a hall of mirrors, he experimented and discovered a way to get in his own reflection. He used this power to become the criminal Mirror Master, and was a frequent foe of The Flash. Scudder died around the same time as Barry Allen, alongside the Icicle during the Crisis on Infinite Earths. Later, Captain Boomerang briefly assumed Scudder's identity, becoming the second Mirror Master. He used this as an alternate identity with which to commit crimes, thus not alerting his teammates in Suicide Squad to his extracurricular activities. Pre-Crisis, he studied mirrors after someone's reflection was held inside a mirror he was working on in the prison workshop. He then learned how to create creatures of light.
